RULES AND REGULATIONS

TRADING-WAIVER PERIODS

Within Own League—No waivers necessary from last day of season to midnight, June 15. Waivers are necessary from midnight, June 15 (PDT) to final day of the season.

Inter-League—Waivers are necessary at all times except during the two Inter-league trading periods. (The first Inter-league trading period allows for the assignment of player contracts from one major league to another without waivers in the period starting at 12:01 Pacific Time, February 15th, and ending on April 1st (time to be determined). The second Inter-league trading period comes five days after the close of the World Series and continues until midnight of the night preceding the last scheduled day of the Winter Meetings.

National Association—Waivers are required at all times for assignment to National Association, except for optional assignments within three years of date player first reported to the major leagues.

USE OF DESIGNATED HITTER

Rule 6.10 provides that "Any League may elect to use the Designated Hitter Rule."

(a) In the event of inter-league competition between any clubs of Leagues using the Designated Hitter Rule and clubs of Leagues not using the Designated Hitter Rule, the rule will be used as follows:

1. In exhibition games, the rule will be used or not used as is the practice of the home team.
2. In All Star games, the rule will only be used if both teams and both Leagues so agree.
3. In World Series play the rule will be used every other year. It will be used in all even numbered years.

DESIGNATED HITTER FOR THE PITCHER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the starting pitcher and all subsequent pitchers in any game without otherwise affecting the status of the pitcher(s) in the game. A Designated Hitter for the pitcher must be selected prior to the game and must be included in the lineup cards presented to the Umpire-in-Chief.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposing club changes pitchers.

It is not mandatory that a club designate a hitter for the pitcher, but failure to do so prior to the game precludes the use of a Designated Hitter for that game.

Pinch hitters for a Designated Hitter may be used. Any substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter himself becomes a Designated Hitter. A replaced Designated Hitter shall not re-enter the game in any capacity.

The Designated Hitter may be used defensively, continuing to bat in the same position in the batting order, but the pitcher must then bat in the place of the substituted defensive player, unless more than one substitution is made, and the manager then must designate their spots in the batting order.

A Designated Hitter is "locked" into the batting order. No multiple substitutions may be made that will alter the batting rotation of the Designated Hitter.

Once the game pitcher is switched from the mound to a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a pinch-hitter bats for any player in the batting order and then enters the game to pitch, this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once the game pitcher bats for the Designated Hitter this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

Once a Designated Hitter assumes a defensive position this move shall terminate the Designated Hitter role for the remainder of the game.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE

Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES

(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:

- (1) A curfew imposed by law;
- (2) A time limit permissible under league rules;
- (3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club. (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment.);
- (4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on.
- (5) Weather, if the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:
  - (i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
  - (ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of a curfew, weather, or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12(a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:

NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five (5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12(a) (5)(i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:

- (1) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same grounds; or
- (2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or
- (3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the grounds of the opposing club, if possible;

PLAYERS TO WEAR DOUBLE EAR FLAPS

Baseball Rule 1.16(b) has been amended to read:

(b) All players in the National Association and in the Major Leagues shall wear double ear flap helmets while at bat (subject to approval of Players Association).

INTENTIONALLY PITCH AT THE BATTER

Rule 8.02 (d)

If, in the umpire's judgment, such a violation occurs, the umpire shall warn the pitcher and his manager that another such pitch will mean immediate expulsion of the pitcher. At the same time the umpire shall warn the opposing manager that such an infraction by his pitcher shall result in that pitcher's expulsion.

If, in the umpire's judgment, circumstances warrant, one or both teams may be officially "warned" prior to the game or an actual violation during the game in progress.

(League Presidents may take additional action under authority provided in Rule 9.05.)

PLAYER LIMITS–ROOKIE QUALIFICATION

PLAYER LIMITS. The active player limit from opening day through August 31 is 25 players, and 40 players from September 1 through the end of the season. The minimum number of active players maintained by each club throughout the Championship Season shall be 24 . . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-player limit (excluding time in the military service).

"SAVE" RULE

(Adopted on recommendation of the BBWAA)

Rule 10.20 SAVES FOR RELIEF PITCHERS

Credit a Pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
- (3) He qualified under one of the following conditions:
  - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning.
  - (b) He enters the game with the potential tieing run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tieing run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or
  - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE

All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. local time, it can be completed. In Baltimore, no inning may begin after 11:59 p.m., but play must end at 11:59 Saturday night regardless of the situation.

Curfews shall be waived for the final series of the season in each of the two parks of two contesting teams.

GAME WINNING RBI

"GAME-WINNING RBI" is the run batted in that gives a club a lead it never relinquishes. (NOTE: There does not have to be a game-winning RBI in every game and all game-winning RBIs must conform to Rule 10.04.)

"BASEBALL — the purest, noblest, most rewarding leisure endeavor there is . . . ."

Continuing a feature of recent years, here are a few excerpted tributes to Baseball from printed stories and broadcast commentaries that seemed appropriate as an introduction to the 1982 RED BOOK.

"As I am sure you have noticed by now, I am by nature a scrupulously fair-minded commentator, balanced and judicious to a fault. On most subjects—the existence of an afterlife, the structure of a political economy, the quality of a new TV comedy—I can see eight or nine sides of the square.

"There is, however, one exception. Baseball. On this topic there are no unresolved questions, no debatable issues. It is the purest, noblest, most rewarding leisure endeavor there is. It was invented, not by Abner Doubleday nor by Alexander Cartwright, but by a just and benevolent providence who wished to make of life something more than a vale of tears.

"Do not show me studies proving that football replaced baseball as American's national pastime. . . . It cannot be true. Indeed, there is only one argument against legal punishment for those who do not like baseball. Their lives are so wretched, so devoid of true happiness and pleasure that those miscreants must be deemed to have suffered enough.

"Now there was a time about 15 years ago when baseball had fallen on hard times. . . . And television, I think, was one of the reasons why. In TV's early days, this medium's technology could not deliver any of the game's pleasures. A single black and white camera unable to capture the totality of the action, too far away to distinguish great plays, made the game's joy elusive to fans trying to discover its pleasures on the tube.

"Now thankfully, TV's technology has improved so much that it is almost worthy of the game it once hurt.

"Color television communicates much of the game's visual splendor. And slow motion instant replays and different angles actually enhance the game. When a controversy develops . . . the cameras can catch the action again . . . and again. . . . And close-up shots make the players more human, while capturing enough of their skills to reassure us that in some sense they are gods.

"Now I'm not arguing that the game is perfect. . . . But baseball is healthy again. . . . And television is one reason why the game is resurgent. It developed the tools and techniques almost worthy of the enterprise. Yes, it is true there is still much that is terrible on the tube. But can a medium which comes close to doing justice to baseball really be all bad?"

"Sunday Morning," CBS-TV, May 31, 1981
Commentary by Jeff Greenfield,
Critic-At-Large, and a baseball fan

"Baseball is one of the few enduring institutions in America that has been continuous and adapatable and in touch with its origins. As a result, baseball is not simply an essential part of this country; it is a living memory of what American culture at its best wishes to be."

A. Bartlett Giamatti
President, Yale University

"Baseball People Have An Inherent Honesty"

. . . Baseball is folksy, relaxed. It's serious, but it isn't. Baseball people . . . have an inherent honesty about them that you won't find in any other arena. I can't tell you what a pleasure it is to ask a question and get a straight answer, instead of an answer that is either vague or self-serving.

"There is a certain romance in baseball that doesn't exist in any other sport. Last weekend took me back to long ago and far away and I had a feeling I hadn't had since I played Little League as a kid. I had forgotten why we used to play baseball all day every day in the summer. I had forgotten that even though the size of the uniforms vary, baseball is still the grand old game that is played by boys from 5 to 40."

Excerpted from a post-World Series column
by Rick Woodson,
Honolulu Advertiser sports editor

"My love affair with baseball grows stronger each spring. More and more each year I regard other sports as off-season diversions to help pass the time between the end of one baseball season and the start of the next.

"Sports always has been a major part of my life, so much so I can't recall when my love affair with baseball began. It seems as if I always had a glove, a ball (usually held together with black tape) and a bat (with nails in the handle). I don't ever remember not reading every baseball box score in every newspaper I could get my hands on. And then rereading them in The Sporting News. I always had at least one team in each league I lived and died with, April through mid-October.

"Certainly, I played the other traditional team sports, football and basketball, and I enjoyed them. But they never had the grip on me baseball did.

"For most of my life I never understood why. I just knew I loved the game, always wanted to play it, read about it, watch it. . . .

"There are, of course, factors that I'm very much aware of such as the time of year when baseball begins its new season, the spring. I don't care what the calendar tells us, spring, not New Year's Day is the beginning of the new year. I don't know whether baseball is responsible for this or not. I doubt it. But the two, spring and baseball, make a lovely couple.

"Baseball is, of course, the most human of sports. To play this marvelous game, you need not weigh 250 pounds and be able to bench press 400 pounds; you need not be 6-foot-3 or taller and be able to jump over buildings. Baseball is played outdoors during the time of year when people enjoy being outdoors, the spring and summer. Baseball isn't governed by a clock; it sets its own pace . . .

"The last few days, as you might guess, have been pure heaven for me. A brand spanking new baseball season began last Wednesday in the big leagues. Then Thursday the Jacksonville Suns opened a new season. Yesterday, the youth leagues got started. Already I've seen a total of six baseball games, live and on television, from tadpolers (ages 8-10) to the majors.

"Motherhood, the flag and baseball. Apple pie? As far as I'm concerned apple pie isn't American enough to rate with the other three."

"As I See It"

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GENE WILLIAM MAUCH-- Born November 18, 1925, Salina, KS; Residence: Rancho Mirage, CA...Married (Nina Lee), one child...Height: five feet, ten inches; Weight: 173 pounds...Named to succeed Jim Fregosi on May 28, 1981.

An astute and taciturn leader, a brilliant strategist and an authority on platoon play, Mauch is the dean of active managers, launching his 22nd season, skippering his fourth major leauge team. Mauch-led teams have won a total of 1,553 games—10th on the all-time list. He has managed a total of 3,295 games—ninth on the all-time list. Despite the longevity, Mauch's clubs have never won a pennant, a major league record for non-winning (breaking the standard held by Jimmy Dykes). To place things in proper perspective, he has tutored clubs in the process of rebuilding—the Phillies in the early sixties, the expansion Montreal Expos and the Minnesota Twins. Pennants withstanding, his efforts earned him National League Manager of the Year honors on three occasions—1962, 1964 and 1973. Again, with mostly sub-par talent, his teams have finished above .500 on 10 occasions. He started his professional career as a shortstop in the Brooklyn Dodgers' organization in Durham, NC, in 1943. He played for six major league clubs—the Dodgers, Pirates, Cubs, Braves, Cardinals and Red Sox from 1944 through 1957. Mauch accepted his first managerial post at the age of 28 with the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association in 1953. He resigned as manager of the Twins on August 24, 1980 and remained out of baseball until joining the Angels as Director of Player Personnel last February 12. He's the ninth manager in club history.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ANTHONY LA RUSSA - Born October 4, 1944, Tampa, Florida; Residence: Palos Hills, Illinois . . . Married (Elaine), one child; Height, six feet one inch; Weight 185 pounds . . . Named (manager) August 2, 1979, succeeding Don Kessinger.

After only two and one-half seasons as the White Sox manager, 37-year-old La Russa enjoys the longest tenure of any skipper in the American League Western Division. Named to lead the White Sox August 2, 1979, La Russa guided the team to a 70-90 record in the remaining days of the season after compiling a 54-48 record as pilot of the Sox' AAA team at Iowa. Last year, Tony led the Sox to a 54-52 record, the first .500 finish for the club since 1977 when the club finished the season with a 90-72 record. La Russa's Sox posted a 31-22 record in the first half of the 1981 season, 2½ games behind the Oakland A's and good for a third-place finish. They won 7 of their last eight games in May, finishing their hottest month with a 15-11 record, and moved into first-place on May 30th with a 25-16 record, ½ game ahead of Oakland. The White Sox busted out of the gates in the second-half season, flying high, winning 10 games on a grueling 16-game Eastern road trip. However, the team could not keep up the pace and wound up in 5th place, 6½ games behind second half Western Division winner, Kansas City. The White Sox finished the 1981 season with a 29-28 road record. La Russa heads into the 1982 season with a big league won-loss record of 151-169. The only major league manager that is a licensed attorney La Russa gained his first managerial experience as skipper of the Sox' AAA club at Knoxville in 1978. He led the club to first half honors in the Southern League with a 49-21 record. He spent the second half of the '78 season as first base coach with the Sox. A star athlete at Jefferson High (Tampa), Tony signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics, making his major league debut with Kansas City in 1963 (34 games). He also spent time in the majors with the Atlanta Braves and the Chicago Cubs. He closed out his playing career in 1977 with New Orleans of the American Association.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

GEORGE LEE (Sparky) ANDERSON - Born February 22, 1934, Bridgewater SD; Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA...Married (Carol), three children...Height: five feet nine inches; Weight: 170 pounds...Became 28th manager of the Tigers replacing Les Moss during the 1979 season.

With a winning percentage of .582, Anderson enters as the sixth winningest manager in history for those with at least 10 years of experience. Of the five ahead of him, only Baltimore's Earl Weaver is active. Ahead of Anderson are Joe McCarthy (.614), Weaver (.597), Billy Southworth (.593), Frank Chance (.592) and John McGraw (.589). That's pretty exclusive company and Anderson has compiled that impressive winning percentage with a 1,063-763 record. Anderson joined the Tigers on June 14, 1979 with a contract that runs through 1984. Before joining the Tigers, the two-time National League Manager of the Year directed the Cincinnati Reds to a 863-586 mark between 1970 and 1978. Under the leadership of Anderson, the Reds won two world championships, four National League pennants and five West Division titles from 1970 through 1978. During that period, the Reds finished first or second each year except 1971 when they finished fourth. Born Feb. 22, 1934 in Bridgewater, SD, but raised in California, Anderson played in the minor leagues as an infielder for six years before playing for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1959. In Anderson's first year as a major league manager, the 1970 Reds won 102 games before sweeping Pittsburgh in three games in the playoffs and then losing the World Series to Baltimore. Anderson was named National League Manager of the Year in 1972 and 1975. He credits the late Charlie Dressen, former Tiger manager, for having the most influence on his becoming a manager.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

RICHARD DALTON HOWSER - Born May 14, 1936, Miami, FL...Residence: Tallahassee, FL...Married (Nancy), two children...Height: five feet, nine inches; Weight: 155 pounds...Named Royals Manager August 31, 1981.

He guided the club to a 20-13 record and to the second-half championship in the American League West. Under Howser, the Royals compiled a .286 team batting average and the pitching staff logged a sterling 2.70 ERA. Howser is a veteran of 23 years in professional baseball, including eight years as a major league player, ten years as a coach and one year as a manager. He managed the 1980 New York Yankees to the best record in baseball with a 103-59 (.635) slate and the Eastern Division Championship. Dick became only the 4th manager in history to win 100 or more games as a first year manager (Ralph Houk won 109 in '61, Sparky Anderson won 102 in '70 and Mickey Cochrane won 101 in '34). Howser was the Yankees' third base coach for ten years (1969-78) succeeding Frank Crosetti. Dick began his professional career in 1958 following his collegiate playing days at Florida State. He was signed by the Kansas City Athletics. Dick was named The Sporting News American League Rookie-of-the-Year in 1961. During his rookie campaign, he was also selected for the A.L. All-Star squad. With the Indians in 1964 he tied the A.L. record for most games played by a shortstop (162) and tied for the league lead with six sacrifice hits. He compiled a .248 lifetime major league batting average in 789 games. Howser coached FSU's baseball team in 1979 leading the Seminoles to a 43-16 record and to the NCAA Eastern Regionals in his first year as a collegiate coach. He holds the unusual distinction of having been honored as Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1958) and the Professional Athlete-of-the-Year in Florida (1961).

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ROBERT (BUCK) LEROY RODGERS - Born August 16, 1938, Delaware, Ohio; Residence: Yorba Linda, California; Married (Judy), four daughters; Height: six feet, two inches; Weight: 195...Named fifth Brewer manager, October 6, 1980, succeeding George Bamberger.

Led the Brewers to the American Leage Eastern Division second season title in 1981 with a 31-22 record, and a berth in post-season playoffs, the first time in the club's 12 year history. Under Rodgers, Milwaukee had the best overall record in the A.L. East last year at 62-47, for a .569 winning percentage. Only Oakland of the Western Division had a better mark (65-45/.587) in the league. Rodgers assumed the duties of "Acting Manager" twice during the 1980 season (March 6 to June 6; September 9 to October 5) when George Bamberger sustained heart problems during spring training, and later decided to retire following a brief return as Brewer skipper. After managing the California Angels Double A team at El Paso to a first place finish in the Texas League in 1977 with a 78-52 record, Buck was slated to handle the Angels Triple A club at Salt Lake City. Instead, he joined the Brewer coaching staff in 1978. Previously, he had managed Salinas of the California League to a fifth place finish in 1975. He coached in the San Francisco Giants organization in 1976, and he was the pitching coach with the Minnesota Twins from 1970-74. As a minor league manager, Rodgers had a 145-125 (.537) record. He spent nine seasons as the Angels catcher before retiring as an active player following the 1969 season. He was originally selected by the Los Angeles Angels in the 1960 expansion draft after playing eight seasons in the Detroit Tigers farm system. Rodgers set an American League record for a rookie in 1962 by catching 155 games. He was named to the Angels All-Time Team.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ALFRED MANUEL (Billy) MARTIN...Born: May 16, 1928, Berkeley, CA...Residence: Blackhawk, CA. Height: 5 feet, 11 inches; Weight: 170 pounds...Named A's manager February 21, 1980.

As a sparkplug second baseman under Manager Casey Stengel, Billy Martin was on five pennant-winning teams in seven full seasons. With the New York Yankees in 1952, he made the famous bases loaded catch on Jackie Robinson's infield pop to save the World Series, and he batted .500 in the 1953 classic to win the Babe Ruth Award. He played for the Athletics, Tigers, Indians, Reds, Braves and Twins in his 12-year career before his inevitable shift from player to manager. Martin piloted the Twins and Tigers to divisional titles and led the Rangers to a strong second place finish before returning to New York late in 1975 as manager of the Yankees. His team won the 1976 pennant, repeating in '77 and taking the World Championship. Billy managed the Yanks in early 1978, and returned during the '79 campaign. He took over the A's (his fifth A.L. team) in 1980 and brought them from dead last (54 wins in 1979) to a strong second in 1980, turning the A's into one of Baseball's most exciting teams. Playing his own brand of "Billy Ball," he piloted the Athletics to the Western Division title last year including a 3-game sweep of Kansas City in the Division Playoff. The A's, as a result, broke their all-time home attendance record, despite missing 22 home dates because of the player strike. For his efforts, he was named Manager of the Year by UPI, the Sporting News and for the fourth time by the AP. His major league managerial record has seen him record 963 victories against only 768 losses for a .556 percentage, trailing only Earl Weaver, Sparky Anderson and Tom Lasorda, among major league skippers. A graduate of Berkeley High in 1946 after which he signed with Oakland of the PCL, Billy has come full circle—home.

MANAGER'S SKETCH

ROBERT JOE (Bobby) COX - Born May 21, 1941, Tulsa, OK; Residence: Marietta, GA . . . Married (Pamela), two children . . . Height: six feet; Weight: 185 pounds . . . Third manager of the Blue Jays; appointed October 15, 1981.

Bobby joins the Blue Jays from the Atlanta Braves where he managed the National League team for the past four seasons following a successful minor league managing career in the New York Yankee system. Cox compiled a 266-323 record in his four seasons at Atlanta, finishing the 1980 campaign with a fourth place, 81-80 slate, Atlanta's best record since 1974. He received numerous votes for NL Manager of the Year honours as the Braves were widely acclaimed as the most improved team in the NL that season. Only Luman Harris (five years) managed the Braves longer than Cox. Originally signed as an infielder by the Los Angeles Dodgers, Cox started his 10-year playing career in 1960. He was dealt to Atlanta in a minor league trade in 1966 and following the 1967 season, he was traded again, to the New York Yankees. He became the Yankees starting third baseman in 1968, batting .229 but lost his job to his roommate, Bobby Murcer, who opened the 1969 season. Cox hit .215 in 1969 for a two-season .224 lifetime average in the Majors. He retired due to bad knees following the 1970 season, but remained in the Yankees' organization as manager of their Fort Lauderdale Class A farm team. He never finished lower than fourth in his six years as a manager in the Yankee system, winning his first pennant and championship with West Haven in the Eastern League (Class AA) in 1972. In the next four seasons, all at Syracuse on the Triple A level, he finished second twice and third twice and won the International League championship's Governors Cup in 1976. In 1977, he was a first base coach with the Yankees.

KEY TO MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE

On the preceding roster pages, the column at the right indicates the length of the player's service. A designation reading "6.012" means six years and twelve days of major league service. A year of service is equivalent to 172 days of the playing season.

712 GAMES MISSED LAST SEASON WHEN STRIKE HALTED BASEBALL

A total of 712 major league games were cancelled last season as a result of the player strike. Play was halted after the games of June 11th, and commencing Friday, June 12th no major league games were played until the delayed All-Star game was held in Cleveland on Sunday night, August 9th. The full schedule of games was played on Monday, August 10th. The strike was settled on July 30th and team workouts were held until the resumption of play with the All-Star game. A total of 381 American League games were cancelled because of the strike.

Rollie Fingers of the Milwaukee Brewers reached double figures in "saves" for the 11th consecutive season and extended his all-time major league leading total to 272 ... while becoming the first relief pitcher to win both the Cy Young Award and the league's Most Valuable Player Award in the same year.

Led by the California Angels' Rod Carew at .332, nine current players have lifetime batting averages over .300 after three or more major league seasons. Carew, the veteran of 15 full seasons with the Minnesota Twins and the Angels, tops all major leaguers career-wise.

In second place is George Brett of the Kansas City Royals who has a .318 lifetime mark after eight-plus seasons. Cecil Cooper, the Milwaukee Brewers' slugging first baseman, and Ken Griffey, the new New York Yankee outfielder obtained from Cincinnati, are tied with .307 lifetime marks, in third place among active players in the A.L.

Willie Wilson of K.C. (.306), Jim Rice of Boston (.305), Al Oliver of Texas (.303), Fred Lynn of California (.301) and Rickey Henderson of the Oakland A's, who climbed to .300 this past summer, complete the list.

RIGHETTI EASILY WINS 1981 A.L. ROOKIE HONORS; GEDMAN TAKES 2nd

Dave Righetti, the outstanding young New York Yankee southpaw, was voted American League Rookie of the Year, gaining 23 of the 28 first place ballots. The other five went to Boston Red Sox catcher Rich Gedman, who batted .288 after being called up several weeks into the season.

Righetti, the 23-year-old lefty who was 5-0 with a 1.00 ERA early in the season at Columbus, posted an 8-4 (2.06 ERA) in 15 games with the Yankees after being called up May 22nd. He was the seventh Yankee to win Rookie of the Year honors, most in the A.L.

Following Righetti and Gedman in the 1-2-3 voting was another Boston rookie, Bob Ojeda, who posted a 6-2, 3.12 ERA in limited service with the Red Sox.

American League President Lee MacPhail (left) smiles as he receives the "John E. Fetzer Award" for long and meritorious service to baseball from Milwaukee club president Allan H. "Bud" Selig at the Pfister Hotel in Milwaukee in January. The award is presented annually in the name of the senior American League club owner, John Fetzer of Detroit.

JOE CRONIN (at microphone) presents the award in his name to Milwaukee's Rollie Fingers at Oakland prior to Game 3 of the A.L. Championship Series.

JOE CRONIN AWARD FOR "DISTINGUISHED ACHIEVEMENT" ALSO GOES TO FINGERS

For his remarkable performances for the Milwaukee Brewers in 1981, culminating an outstanding career in both major leagues, Rollie Fingers was presented the "Joe Cronin Award" for "distinguished achievement in the American League" prior to the ALCS game in Oakland.

Fingers' seasonal accomplishments are recorded in the adjacent MVP and Cy Young Award story. The presentation was made by Mr. Cronin, in whose name this award has been presented since he retired as president of the American League in 1973. Cronin, of course, was a Hall of Fame shortstop, Washington and Boston manager, general manager of the Red Sox, president of the A.L. and now its board chairman.

BREWERS ROLLIE FINGERS IS FIRST RELIEF PITCHER TO WIN BOTH MVP, CY YOUNG

It was a clean sweep for Milwaukee Brewer relief ace Rollie Fingers! In an unprecedented achievement, the mustachioed right-hander won both the Baseball Writers Association Cy Young Award as the top pitcher in the American League in 1981 AND the Most Valuable Player Award.

Fingers was only the second American League relief pitcher to win the Cy Young (Sparky Lyle was the other). No relief pitcher had ever won both the MVP and Cy Young Awards in either league and only the late Jim Konstanty of the Phillies, as a relief pitcher, won the MVP in the National League. Additionally, Fingers won the Rolaids Relief Award, the fourth time in his career the 35-year-old right-hander had taken that prestigious honor.

Fingers had a 6-3 won-lost record and a 1.04 ERA in the abbreviated 1981 season and he topped all relievers with 28 "saves." The popular relief ace, is in his second American League career (he established a host of World Series records with Oakland—1972, '73 and '74) and then became a National League All-Star with San Diego before returning to the A.L. last season with the Brewers.

In addition to all of the above honors, Rollie also won the 1981 Joe Cronin Award for "Distinguished Achievement in the American League" (see adjacent story, next column).

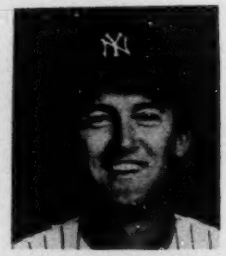
NETTLES WINS MVP IN ALCS; HAD RECORD 3 RBIS A GAME



Graig Nettles, the New York Yankees' brilliant fielding third baseman recently named team captain to succeed his long-time friend—the late Thurman Munson, easily won MVP honors in the American League Championship Series last fall, a three-game Yankee sweep of the Oakland A's. Nettles had three runs-batted-in in each of the three games for a record nine RBIs in the ALCS. He drove in the game-winners with a bases loaded double in the first game; hit a three-run home run in the second and another bases-loaded double for the insurance runs in the third game. Additionally, he played brilliantly in the field.

The first MVP Award was presented following the ALCS in 1980 when Kansas City second baseman Frank White won the honors for his brilliant play in Kansas City's three-game sweep of the Yankees. He batted .545 (6 for 11 with a homer, three RBIs and a stolen base).

The ninth annual "Outstanding Designated Hitter Award" was presented to Greg Luzinski of the Chicago White Sox after balloting by baseball writers, broadcasters and team P.R. directors. HALL OF FAMER GETS ONE ROOKIE VOTE

Bob Grim won 20 games as a starter-reliever for the 1954 New York Yankees and easily won "Rookie of the Year" honors with a possible 17 out of 24 votes. Six went to .302 hitting Jim Finigan of the Philadelphia Athletics. A lone vote went to the Tigers' rookie outfielder, Al Kaline . . . who now is in Baseball's "Hall of Fame."

CARL YASTRZEMSKI

Boston's all-time great Carl Yastrzemski has played more major league baseball games than any player in history other than new Hall of Famer Henry Aaron. He trails Hank by 240 games entering 1982. Yaz is signed for 1982 . . . with an option for '83. His goal . . . a pennant for the Red Sox in this, his 22nd season in Boston. Going into 1982, Carl was 2nd in games played, fourth in at bats, 16th in runs scored, 10th in hits, ninth in doubles, 16th in home runs, 13th in RBIs, and among the leaders in lesser categories—ALL TIME. A decision on 1983 will depend on what happens in 1982, says Yaz.

MLPBC FILMS WIN "EMMY AWARDS"

"The Baseball Bunch" is hosted each week in the season by Johnny Bench and features name guests from the major leagues. Three other Emmy nominations were made for "This Week in Baseball," the MLBPC's highly successful syndicated show which is seen during the season in all major league markets.

ERA TO BE CALCULATED IN 1/3 INNINGS

Following the controversy last fall involving the close race for earned run average honors in the abbreviated American League season of 1981, baseball rules have been changed pertaining to scoring and calculating ERA. Rule 10.22 henceforth will include the following new note:

NOTE: Earned run averages shall be calculated on the basis of total innings pitched including fractional innings. EXAMPLE: 9-1/3 innings pitched and 3 earned runs is an earned run average of 2.89. (3 ER time 9 divided by 9-1/3 = 2.89.)

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his Club's games.

LAUDNER HOMERS FIRST TWO GAMES

Tim Laudner of the Minnesota Twins became only the second American League player to hit a home run in each of his first two major league games. The other was Joe Lefebvre of the New York Yankees in 1980. In addition to Laudner, two other Twin rookies homered in their first major league game this season—Kent Hrbek and Gary Gaetti.

TY COBB IS ALL-TIME PERCENTAGE LEADER IN "HALL OF FAME" VOTING

With controversy following the annual "Hall of Fame" voting, a recent survey revealed that Ty Cobb received the highest percentage of votes every accorded a Cooperstown inductee. He received 98.2 percent of the very first election, missing a unanimous ballot by four votes in 1936. The second highest percentage went to Hank Aaron in 1982 (97.8) with 189 more votes cast.

(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or

(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled doubleheader, if no single game remains on the schedule.

(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

(d) A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup.

A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he had been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

Amend 4.11(d) to read as follows:

(d) A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

SCULLY WINS 1982 FRICK AWARD; TO BE HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

Vince Scully, for 32 years the voice of the Dodgers, has been voted the Ford C. Frick Award for 1982. Presentation to Vin will be made at Cooperstown, N.Y., on Sunday, August 1 at the Hall of Fame induction ceremonies.

The award was established in 1978 and is presented annually to members of the broadcasting profession who have made major contributions to baseball.

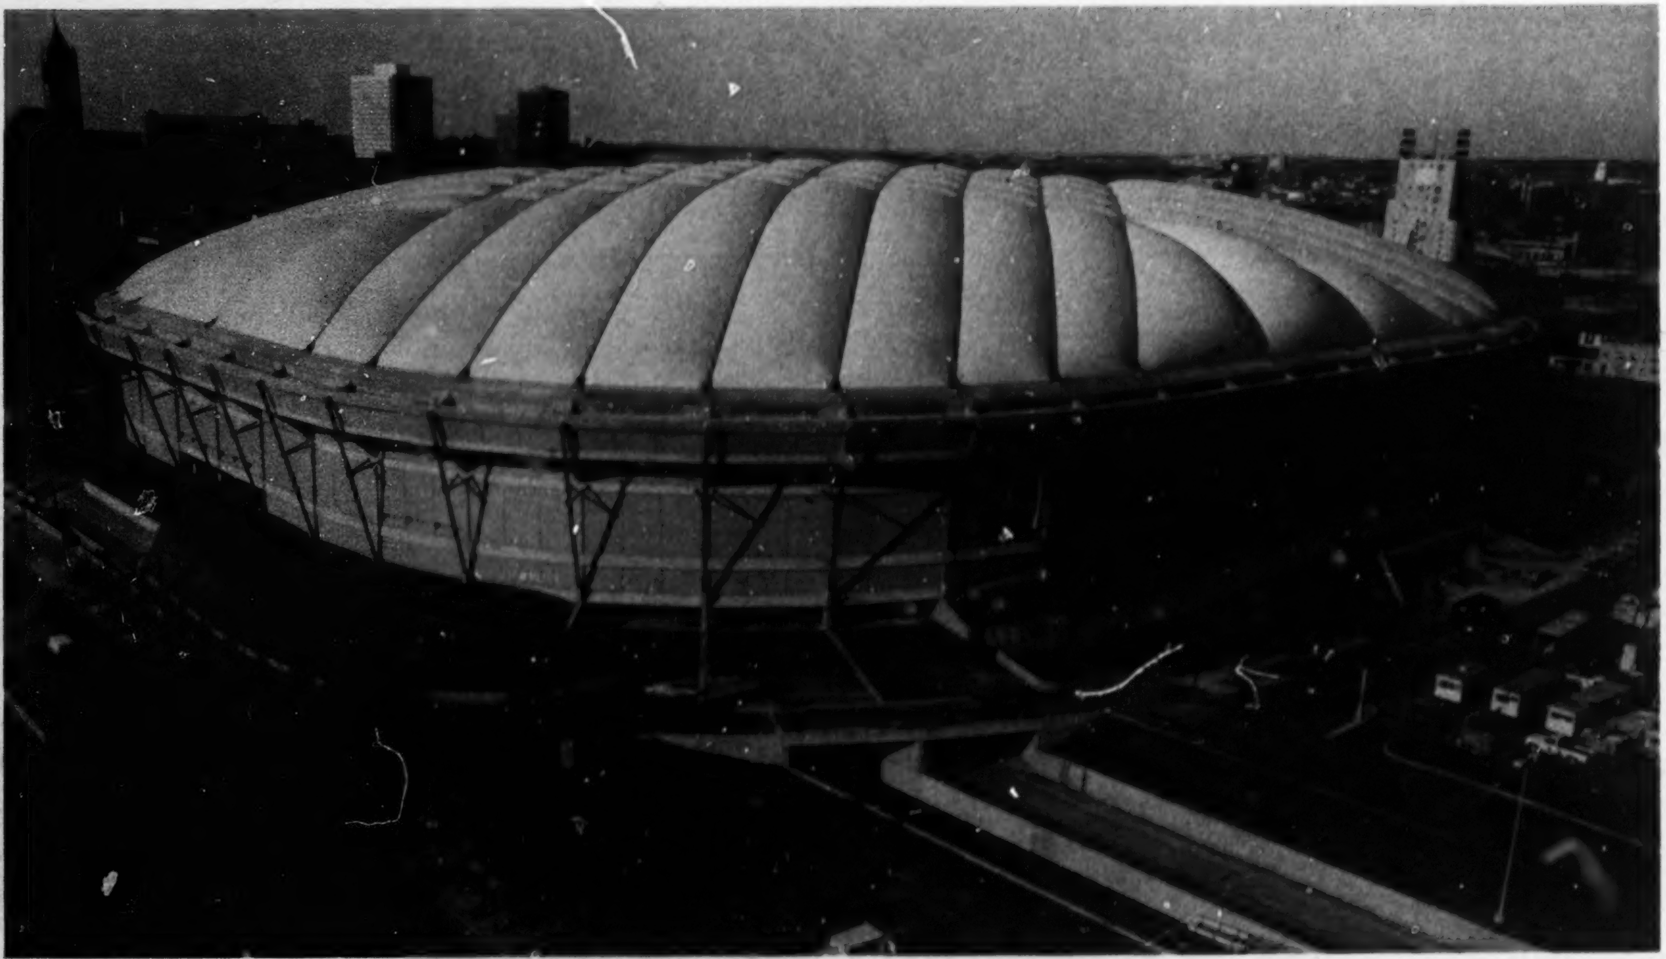
LANSFORD 1ST "RIGHTIE" CHAMP SINCE '70

Carney Lansford of Boston became the first right-handed hitter to win the American League batting championship in more than a decade when his .336 average easily took 1981 league honors. The last right-handed batting champ was Alex Johnson of California who hit .329 in 1970.



TWINS MOVE INTO NEW DOMED STADIUM — HUBERT H. HUMPHREY METRODOME FOR 1982

The Minnesota Twins move into their new enclosed stadium for the 1982 season. Located in downtown Minneapolis, the new Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome will seat 54,111 for baseball (and an estimated 63,000 for football). The new stadium will have bucket type, folding plastic seats throughout.

The stadium was authorized by the Minnesota State legislature at an estimated cost of 54 million dollars, but construction costs have remained constantly under estimate and the stadium is being built on or ahead of schedule.

There will be a 7 foot high fence around the field which has measurements of 343 feet down left field, 408 feet to dead center and 326 feet to right field. The right field stands collapse to enlarge the stadium for football. The dome is 186 feet above the playing field.

The press box and home plate are located in the southwest corner of the building, off 5th Street-Chicago Ave. South entrance. The press gate also will be located in that vicinity. There is convenient access from both clubhouses and the Twins (Press) Room. The Twins will use the third base dugout, the visitors the first base dugout. The playing surface is Super-Turf.

PRE-GAME WORKOUT SCHEDULES

The media covering major league baseball generally get their background stories in the two-hour period preceding the game. Fans, too, come out early to watch players in batting and fielding practice. Below is an approximate schedule of the official workout periods before a game. The visiting team is allotted 40 minutes of batting practice and each team takes 10 minutes of fielding practice before a game. With variations of five to 10 minutes, here is the approximate workout schedules at home parks in the American League, and the order of these workouts.

BASEBALL SPRING TRAINING "HOT LINE" RETURNS

The BASEBALL HOTLINE, a 24-hour-a-day, seven-day-a-week audio service provided for the media by Major League Baseball during spring training, resumes operations on March 8. Two broadcast quality programs, running no longer than three minutes each and featuring interviews and scores (afternoon, evening cycle only) from the Grapefruit and Cactus Leagues, air daily from 3 a.m.-1 p.m. EST and from 1 p.m.-3 a.m. EST. Radio and television stations may tape the programs and use the material to supplement their own sportscasts.

The BASEBALL HOTLINE will operate through April 11. Members of the media can call the BASEBALL HOTLINE by dialing (213) 222-5164.
